

Lubricant for Cylinders

The composition of the lubricant has been made up to prevent the effects of impurities accidentally deposited into the cylinders.

The lubricant protects the cylinder against humidity, which may adversely affect smooth cylinder functioning onwards, as occurs in cases of exposure to adverse environmental conditions.

Small aerosol can 50 ml

For homogeneous distribution, the key should be thoroughly cleaned and then sprayed with the lubricant.

Insert the key into the cylinder again and again.

Open, Close, Live